BIOGRAPHY

María Fernanda Krienert Rivera is a licensed attorney in both the Republic of Panama and the State of New York. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from the Universidad Santa María La Antigua. She furthered her education with a Master of Laws (LL.M.) from the University of Virginia, where she specialized in Private Law, Corporate Law, and Legal Research.

She currently serves as a Junior Associate, focusing her practice on Panamanian corporate law, international corporate services, estate planning, and trust structuring in Panama and the British Virgin Islands. Additionally, she is exploring the study and application of international CRS (Common Reporting Standard) regulations, integrating these standards into her work in compliance and fiscal transparency.

In the academic field, she is the author of the book Fundamentos del Fideicomiso: historia, nociones jurídicas & normativa actual (2024) and served as a research assistant in the area of bioethics and law at the University of Virginia.
