BIOGRAPHY

Jesibel Morales E. develops her practice in the Immigration area at Alemán Cordero Galindo & Lee (Alcogal), where she advises local and international clients on Panamanian immigration matters.

Her experience includes the planning, processing, and regularization of immigration status in Panama, assisting individuals and companies in administrative procedures before the relevant authorities. She is involved in the preparation and management of applications for permits, visas, and other immigration procedures, providing ongoing technical support throughout each process.

Jesibel actively collaborates on immigration matters related to international mobility, business projects, and the establishment of operations in the country, contributing to compliance with the applicable regulatory framework and the proper management of immigration risks. Her practice is characterized by a practical approach, attention to detail, and a close relationship with clients.
